Mount Alexander Mail - Wednesday 4 March 1908

The funeral of Albert Victor and William John Potter, the boys who were drowned in the Loddon on Sunday last, took place yesterday, the place of interment being the Vaughan Cemetery. The cortege was a lengthy one, including over 20 vehicles, and the Sunday School children marched in front of the hearse. A short service was held at the house, where a hymn was sung by the children, and an appropriate address was given by Mr Browning, of Fryerstown. At the grave the children rendered the hymn, "The Sweet By-and-bye," and the service was impressively conducted by Rev D. Provan. The pall-bearers were Messrs Robinson, M'Cann, M. and W. Delmenico, H. Williams, Hauser and Barrassi. The funeral arrangements were conducted by Mr C. Selover. The parents and relatives of the deceased lads desire us to state that there is no truth whatever in the statement that the boys were out rabbiting and had entered the water to have a bathe. They had simply gone for a walk to the springs, and had not gone out rabbiting.
